In compliance with the provisions of article 22.2 of the Law on Information Society Services and Electronic Commerce, Garnica will only use storage devices and data recovery (cookies) when the user has given his or her prior consent to do so in accordance with what is indicated in the user's browser pop-up window when accessing the web page for the first time.

A cookie is a file that is downloaded to your computer or mobile device in order to store data that can be updated and retrieved by the entity responsible for its installation. This information can include the date and time of visit of the website, the pages you have accessed, the time you have spent on them and the sites visited just before and after.

The website uses cookies in order to collect information about the use of it (through Google Analytics) and in order to facilitate your browsing of the website, to distinguish you from other users, provide individualised and personalised services and / or identify problems on the website.

If you use the content of our website, you can also set third-party cookies when accessing, for example, social networks or viewing content hosted on other websites. We cannot access the data stored in the cookies of other websites when you browse them.

By browsing and continuing on our website, you are consenting to the use of the aforementioned cookies and their expiration period.

Since cookies are not required for the use of our website, you can block, disable or delete them by:

1. The browser settings, for example:
 - o Chrome, from HERE
 - o Explorer, desde HERE
 - o Firefox, desde HERE
 - o Safari, desde HERE
2. Other third-party tools, available online, that allow users to detect cookies on each website they visit and manage their deactivation (for example, Ghostery, more info HERE).

In this sense, Google itself provides a Google Analytics disablement plugin for browsers. Download HERE.

We may update our Cookies Policy on our website, so we recommend reviewing this policy each time you access it in order to be adequately informed about how and why we use cookies.
